

The background of the advertisement is a close-up photograph of purple heather flowers. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, with some showing vibrant purple petals and others as buds. The lighting is soft, creating a bokeh effect in the background. The overall color palette is dominated by deep purples and blues, with some green from the stems and leaves.

DUMBARTON ROCK

BLENDED MALT SCOTCH WHISKY®

The Whisky

Dumbarton Rock blended malt is a beautifully balanced Scotch whisky which encompasses all that is good in the category. Comprised of 5 single malts, it delivers a beautifully rounded, sweet and gently fruity spirit that is equally at home in a cocktail and long drink with a mixer or the way many whisky lovers prefer it, just on its own or on the rocks.

Tasting Notes

Nose - Fresh baked cookies, honey softening after a few moments into pear drops, vanilla and chocolate. Fudge wrapped in mellow oak and sweet spices. Palate - Quite fresh, very soft, sweet and fruity coating the mouth. A blend of honey drizzled apples and pears crash into raisins and sultanas all enveloped by that vanilla fudge and butterscotch. Taste - Subtle vanilla, a wonderful cereal note with delicate spice of gentle white pepper, cinnamon and ginger tickling the palette in the perfect ending to a delicious dram.

The History

The only local blended malt in the area, Dumbarton Rock, aims to put Dumbarton (a previously famous whisky producing town) back on the world whisky map. Built around a volcanic plug and sitting on the convergence of River Leven and River Clyde, Dumbarton is a birthplace to global brands like Ballantines, Cutty Sark and Chivas Regal, the export of which was facilitated by two main industries in the town - shipbuilding and glass production.
